

Hello Holy Apostles Catholic School!

My name is Mr. Tyler Cobb, and I will be the new second grade teacher at Holy Apostles. I am excited to join a welcoming community of students and families who focus on Christ and serve others. I am also humbled to be part of an exemplary group of teachers and staff members. I joined the Holy Apostles community as a parishioner nearly eight years ago. In that time, you may have seen me in the adult choir, as a cantor, in the Song of Mark production as Peter, or in Encounter. I have also visited La Sagrada Familia in the Dominican Republic where I served as a medical translator for the Haitian ministry. Additionally, my wife Lizzie, who attended HA, and I got married at Holy Apostles this past August.

I recently completed my seventh year of teaching. I was a second grade teacher for two years at St. Mary's Visitation in Elm Grove. Then I taught fourth grade for three years at St. Dominic in Brookfield. For the past two years, I was the Reading Specialist at St. Dominic. I attended St. Dominic for grade school and Catholic Memorial for high school. I went on to receive my undergraduate degree from St. Norbert College, where I majored in Elementary Education and Spanish and minored in Mathematics. I also received my Masters in Education from Viterbo University and my Reading Specialist license. Needless to say, Catholic education has been and continues to be an important part of my life, and I hope to share the impact it has had on my life with others, especially students.

Here are a few fun facts about me:

- My favorite food is nachos. If they are on the menu, I will probably order them.
- I enjoy reading, and I have even met Kate DiCamillo, author of Because of Winn Dixie, The Tale of Despereaux, and The Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane. I also have an inscribed copy of Lois Lowry's The Giver.
- Finally, during Safer-at-Home, I learned to give myself haircuts, and they actually turned out pretty well!

I appreciate the warm welcome and look forward to becoming a part of Holy Apostles Catholic School. I am thrilled to have the opportunity to learn and serve with all of you, all while growing closer to our best teacher: Jesus Christ. Enjoy the rest of the summer and God bless!
